

The Gannochy Trust Grant Strategy (Perth and Kinross summary)

About the Gannochy Trust

Arthur Kinmond Bell was an extremely able businessman with considerable foresight and acumen. He established The Gannochy Trust in 1937, which maintains his vision and awards approximately £5m of grants annually. The full history and more information about The Gannochy Trust can be found on the Trust's website – www.gannochytrust.org.uk

Grant Strategy for 2022 to 2027

The Trust's Grant Strategy for 2022 to 2027 supports the delivery of our strategic plan and has been informed by an external environment of unprecedented challenges which are having a serious impact on levels of disadvantage, wellbeing, mental health, poverty, and employment opportunities, especially for young people. The Trust is also prepared to fund organisations over several years.

Eligibility

To be eligible for a grant from The Gannochy Trust, you must be a charity that is registered with OSCR, the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator.

Grants Plus

Our Grants Plus programme offers organisational and governance development opportunities. These opportunities are delivered by external specialists and the programme evolves constantly in response to identified need. Please visit the Grants Plus web page to see our current programme.

Youth Panel Fund

The Trust has introduced a separate Youth Panel Fund developed and assessed by young people aged from 14 to 21. Youth Panel Fund applications are up to £10,000 with a funding pot of £100,000 per year. Visit the Youth Panel Fund web page to find out more.
